*Parents - Please note that you are required by law to send, within 10 days of receiving this notice, a response to the school district that specifically addresses the issues raised in this complaint. Please refer to your parental rights/procedural safeguards for a full description of your due process rights. If this is the first time a due process hearing has been requested regarding your child, a copy of the parent rights/procedural safeguards is enclosed with this notice. If a copy of the parental rights/procedural safeguards is not enclosed with this notice please be advised that it is always available from the school district upon request, or from the Birth to Three Connections program at: http://doe.sd.gov/oess/Birthto3\_Parents.asp

*Resolution Session: Within 15 days of receiving a notice requesting due process, the school district must meet with the parents and relevant members of the IFSP team to attempt to resolve the matter during a resolution session. If both parties agree to meet at a resolution session, the 45-day timeline for conducting a due process hearing is suspended. However, if they agree to waive their right to a resolution session or use the mediation process instead, the clock keeps on ticking. If no resolution is reached within 30 calendar days of a due process request, the 45-day timeline for conducting a due process hearing starts again. If the school district and parents reach a resolution within that time, they must put the agreement in writing and have it signed by both parties. The parties then get another three business days to void it and continue to a due process hearing. The school district must access the Resolution Session Tracking form at http://doe.sd.gov/oess/Birthto3\_Parents.asp and complete it and return it to the Birth to Three Connections program.

*Purpose of the Resolution Session: The purpose of the resolution session is for the school district to discuss the due process complaint, and the facts that form the basis of the due process complaint, so that the parent has the opportunity to resolve the dispute that is the basis for the due process complaint.

*Additional information:

The Birth to Three Connections program is required to inform parents of free or low-cost legal and other relevant services. To fulfill this requirement, Birth to Three Connections refers parents to South Dakota Advocacy Services (1-800-658-4782). South Dakota Parent Connection (1-800-640-4553) is the Parent Information Center and can help parents understand their rights and due process procedures.

A mediation process is also available to help resolve early intervention disputes. The costs of mediation are borne by the state; there are no costs for mediation to either the local school district or the parents. The mediator is an impartial professional who is: (a) knowledgeable in Part C laws and regulations; (b) not connected with the school district; and (c) selected for the mediation by the state department of education.
