

School Officer of the Year Achievement Awards

Nominations are now being accepted for this year's School Officer of the Year Award. The South Dakota Association of School Resource Officers (S.D.A.S.R.O.) is glad to support this 3rd annual award.

S.D.A.S.R.O., which began in 2007, strives for great working relationships between school officers and school personnel.

The officer picked for this award should display professionalism, dedication and commitment to their respective school or district.

The S.D.A.S.R.O. Executive Board will make the selection from those nominated. We may call the prospective recipient's school district and/ or employer to get supervisor appraisals. The nominees will be announced at the annual conference .

Nominations must be postmarked by March 4th, 2011.
