

Using Literature to Teach Health

March 14-15, 2011

8:00-4:00 p.m.

Crossroads Hotel and Huron Event Center

100 4th St SW , Huron, SD, 57350

605-352-3204

Target Audience: Elementary, middle and high school teachers, school counselors, nurses, curriculum directors, librarians and others responsible for health education in their school district are encouraged to attend.

Course Objectives: As a result of this training, participants will be able to:

- Explain the health education standards and supporting teaching materials;
- Discuss the connection between health and reading in developing health literacy;
- Utilize valuable tools and resources in the classroom to implement health and reading;
- Share and interact with other participants to expand the resources to be used;
- Determine the relevance of health literacy to learning in the 21st century.

Registration: To register for the training, click here.

Credit Information: The Using Literature to Teach Health training is being offered for one graduate credit through University of Sioux Falls or for Continuing Education Units through the Department of Education at no charge. Participants may also take the course for no credit.

Materials: Participants will receive the Using Literature to Teach Health Teacher's Guide and $250 towards the purchase of recommended book selections in this K-12 teacher guide. In addition, Coordinated School Health will cover travel expenses (to include meals, mileage, lodging and substitute teacher fees) for all participants. Participants will receive a copy of the new South Dakota Health Education Standards and accompanying classroom posters.

Meals and Accommodations: Lunch is served on-site each day. A block of rooms has been reserved at the Crossroads Hotel and Huron Event Center. Call 605-352-3204 by March 4, 2011. State rates are available. Participants are responsible for making their own reservations and for the room charges.

Contact Information: For additional information about the course objectives, training design, or on-line registration contact Marilyn Forst, Healthy Schools Project Coordinator – ESA 3, at 605-995-8997 or the Coordinated School Health staff at 605-773-3261

ADA Disclaimer: Notice is further given to individuals with disabilities that this workshop is being held in a physically accessible place. Please notify the Department of Education within two weeks of the workshop if you have special needs for which this agency will need to make arrangements. The telephone number for making special arrangements is (605) 773-3261. Request of alternative formats and/or interpreters may include: disk, Braille large print, interpreter, other access request, and special dietary concerns.