A BEST-PRACTICE ONLINE INTERACTIVE TRAINING PROGRAM

Ensuring that our youth have a strong foundation to learn is central to education. Yet a child's ability to learn can be compromised by emotional challenges that can, at their worst, lead to thoughts of suicide. That's why educators are in a powerful role to observe vulnerable youth and help connect them to resources. The Helpline Center has partnered with the Society for the Prevention of Teen Suicide to offer an acclaimed online training program for teachers that is easy, comprehensive—and free of charge.

A practical and user-friendly interactive training program, this two-hour course is fully accessed online.

IMPROVE CONFIDENCE in responding to at-risk students.

Understand the educator's role in identifying suicidal risk in students and making appropriate referrals.

Practice interaction strategies with students and resources.

Learn relevant information about YOUTH SUICIDE in South Dakota.

INCREASE RECOGNITION of warning signs.
