Student Friendly Language

3.RL.1
I can ask and answer questions using text evidence to show I understand what is happening by rereading and retelling.

3.RL.2
I can retell stories from diverse cultures using key details.
I can tell the main idea (central message) and lesson or moral of the story.

3.RL.3
I can describe how the character’s actions affect the outcome of a story.

Relevance and Applications
Relevance and Applications: How might the grade level expectation be applied at home, on the job or in a real-world, relevant context?

- Asking and answering questions helps us to understand the world around us.
- Questioning what we are reading in printed material helps us understand.
- Using evidence to support our thoughts and opinions helps us understand.
- Retelling stories and important information to people in the world around us helps us relate to others.
- Understanding character responses helps us to effectively respond to challenges in real-life situations such as disagreements on the playground, solving problems with a sibling, or how two different people respond to the same problem.
- Retelling a personal experience in sequence helps us relate to others.
