Course Description

Introduction to Human Services focuses on the pathways and careers in the Human Services cluster. The course allows students to identify and compare their personal attributes with careers in this cluster. It will also explore the professional behaviors, skills and abilities necessary for human services careers.

Program of Study Application

Introduction to Human Services is a cluster course in the Human Services career cluster. A student can participate in a foundation course prior to participation in this course. Introduction to Human Services prepares a student to participate in pathway courses in any of the Human Services pathways: consumer services, personal care services, family and community services/mental health services, or early childhood development and services.
