

2017

Short-Term Job Opportunity

With the National Assessment of Educational Progress

What is NAEP?

The National Assessment of Educational Progress, also known as The Nation's Report Card, is the only nationally representative and ongoing assessment of what our nation's students know and can do. Sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education, NAEP has been conducted since 1969 and is nationally recognized as the "gold standard" of elementary and secondary student assessments.

Required Qualifications

- High school diploma or GED
- Available for required day in person training and additional online training in January 2017
- Available to work during school hours, when work is available, between the end of January and early March 2017
- Willing to complete background check requirements, including an FBI fingerprint check
- Access to broadband internet connection and personal, private email account
- Valid driver's license, not currently under suspension and regular access to an insured reliable vehicle to travel to and from assigned schools
- Willing and able to lift and carry up to 50 pounds, with or without reasonable accommodation

Tell me more about this opportunity!

NAEP is conducted between the last week in January and the first week in March every other (odd) year, employing thousands of staff. NAEP has short-term opportunities at various positions to work on this important study of U.S. education. Job assignments begin in late 2016 and last until March 2017.

Responsibilities include

- Administering assessment sessions using tablets in schools for a group of approximately 25 students and
- Ensuring quality control by following proper procedures.

Westat offers

- Paid training,
- Paid time and mileage reimbursement for local driving from home to schools and back,
- Weekly paychecks (with direct deposit), and
- Opportunities for advancement based on performance.

Westat, a nationally recognized research firm responsible for conducting NAEP since 1985, is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

How do I find out more about this opportunity?

To apply visit www.westat.com/CAREERS and select "Search Field." Search for your state to see the NAEP positions available in your area, and select the "Apply to Job" button.

Candidates should

- Enjoy working with children in schools,
- Be detail oriented,
- Be able to work in a team environment,
- Have good communication skills, and be comfortable working with technology.

Prior education or research experience is a plus. Ideal for retired teachers.

For more information about Westat, visit www.westat.com