Special education reports now available online

PIERRE, S.D. – Information regarding school districts' performance on improving the educational outcomes of students with disabilities is now available online. Results of early intervention services for infants and toddlers with developmental delays are also available.

The Special Education and Birth to Three State Performance Plan Reports are released annually. The special education report addresses the federal special education program known as Part B. This report identifies school districts' ability to meet federal requirements on several indicators along with performance targets. It is based mainly on data from the 2014-15 school year.

To view special education report cards, visit <http://www.doe.sd.gov/oess/sped-spp.aspx> and scroll down to the "LEA Public Reporting" heading. Statewide and district-level data are available under "Data from the 2014-15 School Year."

The Birth to Three State Performance Plan/Annual Performance Report addresses the federal special education program known as Part C. This report identifies the ability of the early intervention program to meet the 11 federal requirements during the 2014-15 reporting year.

To view the Birth to Three report ("FFY 2014 State Performance Plan/Annual Performance Report"), visit <http://doe.sd.gov/oess/Birthto3.aspx> and click on the "Public Reporting" link.
