School food service during unexpected school closures

The South Dakota Department of Education’s Office of Child and Adult Nutrition Services has received approval from the U.S. Department of Agriculture to allow for school food services to continue during this time of unexpected school closures.

The department has developed a webpage denoting which school districts and sponsor agencies are continuing school food services during this time: <https://doe.sd.gov/coronavirus/foodservice.aspx>. This webpage will be updated daily around 8 a.m. CDT.

This may not be an exhaustive list as some sites may be offering food services that the department is not yet aware of. Meal serving site methods will vary by location. Please contact your local school district or sponsoring agency for more details. All meals are free to children.
