

K-16 Summit
Pre-conference of Systems Change
October 14, 2015 9:00 – 3:00
Cedar Shores, Chamberlain, SD

Target Audience: Principals, Superintendents, Cooperating Teachers (recently had a student-teacher), and Higher Education faculty.

K-12 and Higher Ed: Preparing teachers for the challenges of today's classrooms

No new teacher can be entirely prepared for the first day of school. Teacher preparation and teacher supports are key elements in developing successful teachers and retaining them in the profession. The K-16 Summit is designed to provide an opportunity for postsecondary and K-12 education educators to learn and collaborate together.

K-16 Summit Goals:

- Begin discussions on how stakeholders can work together to support teachers,
- Examine expectations and priority support areas, and
- Identify future opportunities to support teachers.
