

The Use of Data for Student Success

Join Dr. Julie Hartline, co-author of the second edition of The Use of Data in School Counseling: Hatching Results (And So Much More) for Students, Programs, and the Profession, for a two-day workshop to learn how to create or transform a school counseling program to positively impact ALL students.

This workshop will cover the delivery of Tier 1 school counseling services to reach ALL students and data-driven Tier 2 & 3 school counseling interventions for those students who need more within a comprehensive school counseling program and the Multi-Tiered, Multi-Domain System of Supports.

Participants will learn to use data to drive curriculum decisions, identify those students who need more, recognize systemic issues that exist within the school, and evaluate the impact of school counseling lessons and interventions to improve future delivery.

While school counselors and administrators will gain the most from attending the entire two-day workshop as a team, the morning of day one will be specifically geared toward how school counselors and administrators can work collaboratively through the use of tools and strategies such as the annual agreement, action plans, and an administrator check-in tool, to manage the effectiveness and efficiency of the school counseling program to ensure the best results for students and the school.

We hope you join us for this interactive, two-day workshop to learn how to implement an exemplary school counseling program that supports students and positively impacts student achievement, attendance, and behavior.
