Well-Rounded Education

(ESEA Section 4107)

- Enhance class offerings such as virtual foreign language, art, or music education
- Provide mentoring before or after school in study skills or problem solving
- Host family engagement to inform families of FAFSA mandates
- Provide programming to students that are underserved in STEM
- Promote access to accelerated learning such as dual credit and Advanced Placement classes
- Hosting integrated volunteerism and community involvement
- Strengthen instruction in civics and history by incorporating project-based learning
- Strengthen early learning with opportunities in exploration
- Early Intervention and Response to Intervention strategies
- Invite guest speakers in expert fields such as physicists and ambassadors
- Professional development in any of the above-mentioned areas

Safe and Healthy Students

(ESEA Section 4108)

- Drug and Violence Prevention programs
- Identifying, preventing, and reporting trauma and violence
- Reducing Exclusionary Discipline Practices
- Positive Behavior Intervention Support
- Re-entry programs and transition services for justice involved youth
- School based health and mental health
- Social Emotional Learning and problem solving
- Nutritional Education and Physical Education
- Suicide Prevention and referral practices
- Bullying Prevention
- Create Schoolwide Behavior Matrix
- Hire a Resource Coordinator or Social Worker
- Professional Development in any of the above-mentioned areas

Effective Use of Technology

- Provide rural students access to high-quality digital learning opportunities
- Increase access to Digital Learning Experiences
- Provide economically disadvantaged students to experiences and skills such as coding
- Purchase subscriptions for supplemental learning curriculum or materials
- Purchase technological infrastructure
- Purchase technological equipment
- Increase access to blended learning
- Discover, adapt, and share high-quality resources
- Acquire digital creation tools for lesson plans to differentiate and individualize instruction
- Professional development in any of the above-mentioned areas